

The 11th Asian Pig Veterinary Society Congress (APVS2025) Sponsorship Prospectus

We are pleased to offer our sincere appreciation for your continued support.

The 11th Asian Pig Veterinary Society Congress (APVS2025) will be held at the Fukuoka Convention Center (Fukuoka City, Fukuoka Prefecture) from November 9th to 12th, 2025 (4 days).

The Asian Pig Veterinary Society (APVS) was established in 2002. Diseases that threaten livestock management are spreading beyond national borders. The aims are sharing information on common pig production and diseases in Asia and overcoming these challenges together in order to control infectious diseases in the region.

Currently consisting of 6 countries and 1 region (China, Korea, Thailand, Philippines, Viet Nam, Taiwan, and Japan), the APVS is governed by a board of directors consisting of swine veterinary associations and researchers from each country. In the past, the 4th APVS (APVS 2009) was held in Tsukuba City, Ibaraki Prefecture, with 1,214 participants from 23 countries and regions.

The main theme of the 11th Annual Meeting is "Sustainable Future of Asian Pig Production". As this is the second time in 16 years that the conference has been held in Japan, we are committed to providing a forum for active discussions on topics such as the situation of pig production in Asia and disease problems that are highly regional in nature, and to provide useful information for the field. We also plan to hold seminars for producers. It is expected to be an enthusiastic and active gathering, with more than 800 participants, both domestic and international, expected to attend.

The Executive Committee of the 11th Asian Pig Veterinary Society Congress (APVS2025) has been formed under the Organizing Committee as the executive body for the conference. With this committee as the core, we will make every effort to make this conference a success with your help and support.

Therefore, we would like to ask for your kind consideration to sponsor this conference in spite of these difficult economic times.

Sincerely,

APVS2025 Organizing Committee
President, Hiroaki Ogura
